

Seminars Discussing Voter Rights for People with Disabilities will be Held Throughout Michigan

With the support of MIDSA, Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council and Self Advocates of Michigan are co-hosting training seminars focusing on voter rights and accessibility for people with disabilities. These seminars are free and open to everyone. The seminars cover important issues such as:

- What are your rights as a voter with a disability
- Why your vote matters and how to participate in the electoral process
- What to expect at the polls
- How to get assistance if needed to cast your vote

The August dates and locations are listed below. Dates / locations for September and October will be sent out soon. We will be hosting them across the state including the Upper Peninsula!
